Re: Sembler v. Advanta Bank Corp., et al.
File No. CV 07-2493
(RJD) (LB)

Dear Judge Dearie:

This office is counsel to Frederick M. Sembler as Plaintiff in the above-referenced proceeding. On behalf of Plaintiff, and in accordance with Section (I)(D) of Your Honor's Individual Motion Practices, I am enclosing a courtesy copy of Plaintiffs' Objections to Order of Magistrate Judge, dated November 12, 2010. Plaintiff's counsel requested an extension of time for the filing of said objections to Magistrate Judge Lois Bloom's October 15, 2010 Order in a letter to Your Honor dated October 29, 2010 (my "October 29, 2010 Letter") in contemplation of Plaintiff's filing a stipulation to withdraw. Since today is the deadline to file the contemplated Objections, and both of the parties have not been able to execute all of the instruments before such withdrawal is filed, as mentioned in my October 29, 2010 Letter, Plaintiff is filing the Objections herein to preserve Plaintiff's rights.

As indicated on the document itself, the original was filed with the Court and served on Defendant's counsel via ECF.

I thank Your Honor for your attention and consideration.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
Carol A. Crossett
